Part VIII.15 Connection with other organizations
(with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America)

Northern Virginia Lutheran Campus Ministries, Inc. is a nonprofit corporation, established for the sole purpose of engaging in campus ministry on the campus(es) of one or more institutions of higher learning in Northern Virginia. The full power to conduct, manage and direct the affairs of Northern Virginia Lutheran Campus Ministries is vested solely in a duly-elected Board of Directors. Any and all employees of Northern Virginia Lutheran Campus Ministries are employed by and accountable to the corporation through the Board of Directors.

The purpose of Northern Virginia Lutheran Campus Ministries is to further the campus ministry mission of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) and the Metropolitan Washington, DC Synod of the ELCA. Northern Virginia Lutheran Campus Ministries is related to and serves as a Campus Ministry Agency of the ELCA and the Metropolitan Washington, DC Synod, but is not owned, directed or managed by either the churchwide organization or the synod. Northern Virginia Lutheran Campus Ministries operates according to the Policies and Procedures of the ELCA Program Unit for Vocation and Education. Among those Policies and Provisions is the stipulation that a Campus Ministry Agency of the ELCA conduct its ministry according to guidelines established by the host educational institution, and for the greater good of that institution and its students, faculty and staff.

Northern Virginia Lutheran Campus Ministries receives an operating grant from the Metropolitan Washington, DC Synod to conduct its ministry. The primary source of income for Northern Virginia Lutheran Campus Ministries is a consortium of local congregations of the ELCA. The Board of Directors is accountable for any funds it receives from the synod by submitting an Annual Report, and providing regular reports to the Program Unit for Vocation and Education of the Metropolitan Washington, DC Synod.

The ELCA and Metropolitan Washington, DC Synod conduct a Quadrennial Review of the work of Northern Virginia Lutheran Campus Ministries for the purpose of ensuring and enhancing the quality of the ministry.
